Dear KPFF Subscriber:

We thought you would like to see a copy of our budget. It shows graphically how much, despite our new du Pont Award, we still need the help of our friends and subscribers. You will see that essential cover-the-budget item ("Contributions") circled on the cover.

Forty thousand dollars. It may look like a lot of money. It is! It looks even larger to those of us on the station staff who live with it each day. But it is essential if we are to do the job.

We can list many things in our annual budget. We cannot list the significance of the nearly 6,000 hours of broadcasting per year, though we know their cost - about $500.00 a day, or 50 cents a minute. No dollar sign can be affixed to our daily and hourly sound of freedom -- the right to be heard, for the commentator and citizen with something to say, and for the new writer, poet, musician, as well as the already accepted one;

our freedom to function for you, at the top of our bent, in presenting a wide range of programs on the arts, news and public affairs;

our freedom to bring you many programs for just sheer fun (and don't forget the children);

your freedom from any commercial announcement or influence on the programming.

Your investment insures these freedoms. Your contribution, over and above your regular subscription, will keep KPFF coming to you each day.

We need the $40,000 to make up the difference -- fortunately expected to narrow year by year -- between subscription income and operating costs. Be as generous as you can. And please send your subscription now, while you are thinking about it.

With thanks,

Larry Steinberg
Larry Steinberg, Manager
(for the KPFF Staff)

VOL. THREE, NO. 21

The PROGRAM FOLIO, a service to KPFK subscribers, is published bi-weekly by KPFK (FM 90.7 mc) which serves Southern California. KPFK broadcasts 17 hours a day of music, drama, public affairs and programs for children. The station promotes discussions of all points of view, but endorses none.

Anyone can listen, but those who want creative and provocative programming support KPFK. The basic annual subscription is $12.00. Contributions are tax-deductible because KPFK is non-profit. Sustaining, $25.00; Contributing, $50.00; Patron, $100.00; Participating, $250.00; Lifetime, $1,000; Student, $5.00 (six months); Introductory, $3.00 (three months). Subscriptions are transferable to KPFA, serving Northern California (2207 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley) and WBAI, serving the New York area (30 E. 39th St., N.Y. 16).

KPFK and these two other listener-subscription stations form Pacifica, a non-profit corporation. KPFK programming has been favorably reviewed by THE SATURDAY REVIEW, THE LOS ANGELES TIMES, THE NATION, THE NEW YORKER, THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR and numerous other publications. KPFK has received a PEABODY, broadcasting's highest award.

KPFK transmits from Mt. Wilson with a power of 75,000 watts. The mailing address is KPFK, Los Angeles 38, California. Studios and offices are located at 3729 Cahuenga Blvd., North Hollywood.

Program Talk

about drama and literature

We would like to call your attention to two new series in literature. THE SCRIVENER is devoted to new prose fiction with special emphasis on the short story. We will be presenting stories from magazines as well as unpublished material.

BABEL begins an attempt to present foreign poetry in what we believe will be the most effective format for an English speaking audience. The poetry will be read first in English and then in the original language. The selection for this folio features the work of the classical Latin poet Catullus. Future programs will deal with the contemporary poetry of Russia, Japan, Spain, Greece, etc. We are always on the lookout for original translations of modern poetry which may be sent care of the drama and literature department.

THEATER REVIEW undergoes some transformation this month and will devote itself exclusively to a critical appraisal of dramatic productions in Los Angeles. We thank Art Seidelman for the year he gave to this program and welcome Larry Graver of UCLA's Dept. of English as our new reviewer. Mr. Graver and John Houlton, who I am sure is familiar to you from the program, will be sharing the critical scene. Mr. Graver will report in the first Folio of the month; Mr. Houlton, in the second.

about music

Listeners will note that in this Folio the early morning concerts from 7 to 8 a.m. are BBC programs. We thought you might like to hear some of these fine performances in the early hours of the day for a change. These festivals will all reappear in the Folio, from time to time, in the evenings and on weekends.

We also have begun to rebroadcast our early morning concerts at 11:30 a.m., with a two-month lapse. Because of the expense of reprinting these lengthy programs, we are not able to include all the details for the rebroadcast. We hope you will save your current Folios for future reference to these concerts.

BROADCAST HOURS: 7 a.m. to 12:00 midnight, seven days a week. Dates of future broadcasts appear in BOLD FACE, caps and parentheses. Example: (DECEMBER 30). Dates of original broadcasts in light face and in parentheses. Example: (December 30). Numbers in parentheses following listing of musical selections refer to time, in minutes.
